Him-Dak Eco Museum and Archive

47685 North Eco Museum Road
Maricopa, AZ 85239
Tel: 520-568-9480
Fax: 520-568-9557

Directions: I-10 South to Maricopa Exit West (18 miles) through the town of Maricopa. Right on Farrell Road at the Fire Station (1.5 miles). Right on Eco Museum Road to the Museum.

The Him-Dak Eco Museum was established to collect, analyze, preserve, protect, promote and teach various aspects of the Ak-Chin heritage, culture and communication between generations. Tribal crafts, exhibits and photographs of the Ak-Chin people are displayed. The Museum is distinguished from a traditional museum in that land and territory replace the museum building, and the residents of the area take on the role of curator and public. This museum acts as an exhibit and storage area that reflects both prehistoric and local items from families that are housed here.

- Open Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
- No entrance fee required
- Group tours can be arranged by calling Elaine Peters, Director, 520-568-9480
