Influencer Deliverables:

These are items that should ideally be received from influencers, though it's important to note that each process will yield different deliverables depending on the influencer and the agreement. The Arizona Office of Tourism reserves the right to decline the use of content if it is deemed off-brand for Visit Arizona.

- > Influencer should provide at least one blog with photo to be posted on the Visit Arizona website.
- Influencer should provide photos, videos or a combination of both to be used at the leisure of the agency. By providing access to these photos, the influencer agrees to grant the Arizona Office of Tourism permission to use these photos or videos (with credit) on social media, the Visit Arizona website or any other promotional items deemed appropriate.
- > Video blogs are a welcome addition to any influencer deliverables.
- Influencer should agree to an agreed minimum of posts on all of their channels, including any personal blogs or websites. The influencer should also provide a timeline or schedule of when and where each post will be published.
- Influencer should provide an impact report with snapshots of posts, post engagement, analytics for their website/blog for the time period of one month or any length of time in which they posted for the trip.
